

Mrs. Robert Thornburgh to Head St. Lawrence Women

Women of St. Lawrence Martyr, new Catholic parish recently organized, held their second meeting at the Knights of Columbus hall with Monsignor Daniel Collins presiding. Mrs. Joseph Couture, president of Corpus Christi Parish Council of Catholic Women was guest speaker. Mrs. Couture spoke of the organization of women under the Guild system.

She outlined the purposes of such groups as spiritual, intellectual, social and as a means of knitting together the women of the various sections to act in the best interest of the entire Parish.

Mrs. Robert Thornburgh was named President of the St. Lawrence Martyr organization. The 24 consist of fourteen Guilds. Captains appointed to these groups are Misses: Ruth McAllister, F. J. Willis Paul Hogan, M. B. Yates, L. J. Garcia, Delmar Long, Walter Von der Ahe, Paul Higgins, Lyle Peters, Emil Huskamp, Louis Regan, George Schneider, Philip Delmar, Joseph Vandergrift with Mrs. Roy Mulgrew and Mrs. Jack Glaser sharing the joint chairmanship of publicity and secretarial duties.

The first meeting of the Guild Captains was planned following the general meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Thornburgh to make plans for the first year of St. Lawrence Martyr Parish Council of Women.

'Over the Rainbow' Theme Predominates Colorful Installation Ritual of Torrance Job's Daughters

"Over the Rainbow," theme of the new Honored Queen Diane Allen of Job's Daughters Bethel 50 was attractively carried out in the decorations for the ceremony at the Masonic Temple on Saturday evening, Dec. 3, when new officers were installed. A huge rainbow, lighted with blue, pink, yellow, and green lights formed the background for the ceremony. Installed with Honored Queen Diane Allen were Susan Anne Babcock, senior princess; Linda Louise Thayne, junior princess; Jeannette Marie Wright, guide; and Kay Frances Smith, marshal.

Appointive officers installed were: Sharon McNally, outer guard; Sharon Neely, inner guard; Pat Smith, senior custodian; Sherry Harvey, junior custodian; Carolyn Janssen, recorder; Maurine Bradford, treasurer; Judy Allen, chaplain; Mary Margaret Blount, librarian; Barbara Alter, musician; Marlene Fulton, Janalee Bristol, Laverne Lewis, Jackie Hoy and Phyllis Bryson, messengers.

Others were Jean DuRant, assistant recorder; Pat Vaughn, choir director; Ruth Cavanaugh, banner bearer; Donna Wrigley, electrician; Carla Cramer, page and Esther Van Wagner, obligation chairman.

Serving as installing officers were: Carol Maloy, guide; Janice Crabtree, marshal, Carol Dee Fox, chaplain, Janie Moffatt, recorder; Pat Clere, musician; Beverly Chambers, senior custodian; Marian McDonald, junior custodian, all past honored queens of the Bethel; and Kay McGinley, electrician.

Carol Lee Allen served as hostess and ushers were Jimmy Allen and Richard Donaldson.

The guardian council is composed of: Mrs. Pearl Thayne, guardian; Leonard Babcock, associate guardian; Mrs. Edna Babcock, secretary; Mrs. Josephine Orend, treasurer; Mrs. Helen Alter, director of music; Mrs. Mary Bradford, promoter of sociability; Mrs. Evelyn Neely, director of paraphernalia; Ralph Allen, promoter of finances; Mrs. Hazel Williams, promoter of hospitality; and Mrs. Jessie Fowler, director of epochs.

Cyril Allen, worshipful master of Lomita lodge, 644 served as master of ceremonies. Following the entrance of the guardian Mrs. Pearl Thayne and associate guardian Leonard Babcock, Sally Ann Speck, retiring honored queen was escorted during which Miss Shirley Washburn sang "You'll Never Walk Alone."

The choir and the officers then entered as Miss Washburn sang "Over the Rainbow." As the Holy Bible was brought in the soloist sang "The Lord's
